ATTENTION TO NEW POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

This announcement is applicable only for ONCE. This is not to be interpreted as a general rule and application.

New students who have registered to EMU postgraduate programs for the fall term 2015-2016 and did not possess documentation to submit and be exempted from the English Preparatory Program can take the “English Proficiency Test” to be administered by the Foreign Languages and English Preparatory School next week on October 28 (LISTENING, READING, and WRITING) and on October 30 (SPEAKING). For this purpose;

a) Students who have failed in the “Placement Test” that they have already taken are required to apply in person to the EPS secretary and register for the “English Proficiency Test”. Registration period: 21 – 23 October, 2015 Wednesday to Friday.

b) These students who will take this ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST and are not successful will DEFINITELY go back and continue their English education in the classes they were assigned to. In other words, they will NOT be given another PLACEMENT TEST.

c) Students who have already taken the PROFICIENCY TEST and were not successful are not eligible to sit for this PROFICIENCY TEST again.
